Dear Henri -

Your letter was a delight to receive.

The rhubarb in Washington was as they say "hopeless but not serious". I had a rather good time and thanks to the generosity of the Thomas Committee almost had a free vacation. They paid all expenses and I fear got a rather uninteresting performance. I wrote them for reprints and yesterday got the transcript of that portion of the testimony released. It is one of the most amusing documents I have seen except for a few slight distortions which occurred during editing. I understand they are going back to Hollywood soon, so look out!

I will be looking forward to your stay here. Whether you stay with me or not depends on what shape I manage to get my apartment in. Right now all I have is bare walls and things appear to go slowly. I will try to have the joint livable by the time you get here - otherwise it will be the Commodore - now known as The Sheraton.

Please give all my best to Emma May, Temianka Jr., and to all the gang. I am most happy to know you will be here for all of 4 days. It sounds real exciting.

As ever,

Martin
